▶ Thank You for holding a Tupper...

from MARYANN MEDFORD to you

Dear Test,

Thank you for partnering with Tupperware for your fundraiser! One of the benefits of holding a TupperConnect™ Fundraiser is that your sellers can raise funds from family and friends both near and afar, in person or online.

Please take a few minutes to click on the link below and create an account. As the organizer, you can decide to create a structure that allows you to communicate with the fundraiser team captains or if you prefer, directly with individual sellers.

Once your account is created, you will be prompted to create an email invitation to your captains or sellers, and they in turn will be asked to create an account.

I look forward to partnering with you for a very successful fundraiser! If you have any questions, please feel free to call or send me an email.

STEP 3: Choose one of these options: "Set up my fundraiser with sellers" or "Set up my fundraiser with captains".

(They might choose to have captains, if for example, they are doing a school fundraiser and would have the teachers be captains for their own classes. Otherwise, it's easier to just have Sellers.)

The screenshot shows the 'MY ACCOUNT' page for a Tupperware fundraiser. The left sidebar contains navigation links: MY EPARTY, MY FUNDRAISER, SUMMARY, CAPTAINS, ORDERS, FUNDRAISER LIST, and LOGOUT. The main content area is titled 'MY ACCOUNT' and features the 'Tupper connect fundraiser' logo. Below the logo, there is a congratulatory message and two options to choose from. The 'RECOMMENDED' option is 'Set up my fundraiser with Sellers', which includes a list of bullet points: 'You will send out invitations just to the individual sellers in your organization.', 'Sellers will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.', and 'Sellers will invite those they wish to have an opportunity to shop the fundraiser.' The other option is 'Set up my fundraiser with Captains', which includes a list of bullet points: 'You will send out invitations just to the captains.', 'Captains will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.', 'Captains will invite the individual sellers on their respective teams.', 'Sellers will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.', and 'Sellers will invite those they wish to have an opportunity to shop the fundraiser.' Below these options are two diagrams. The first diagram, 'Set up my fundraiser with Sellers', shows a central 'YOU' node connected to three 'SELLER' nodes (SELLER 1, SELLER 2, SELLER 3). The second diagram, 'Set up my fundraiser with Captains', shows a central 'YOU' node connected to three 'CAPT' nodes (CAPT 1, CAPT 2, CAPT 3). Each 'CAPT' node is further connected to two 'SELLR' nodes (e.g., CAPT 1 connects to SELLR 1 and SELLR 2). Blue arrows point from the text 'Set up my fundraiser with Sellers' to the first diagram and from 'Set up my fundraiser with Captains' to the second diagram.

Congratulations on your decision to have a Tupperware Fundraiser. Including online orders, or TupperConnect™ orders, to your Fundraiser is easy. Before we get started we need to know how you would like to organize your Fundraiser.

There are two options to choose from. You can choose to include Captains to lead teams within your organization, or you can invite all of the individual sellers yourself. It is important to note that once you make this decision, you cannot go back.

RECOMMENDED. If you decide to choose Sellers:

- You will send out invitations just to the individual sellers in your organization.
- Sellers will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.
- Sellers will invite those they wish to have an opportunity to shop the fundraiser.

If you decide to choose Captains:

- You will send out invitations just to the captains.
- Captains will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.
- Captains will invite the individual sellers on their respective teams.
- Sellers will follow the link in their invitation to create an account.
- Sellers will invite those they wish to have an opportunity to shop the fundraiser.
